Tom,

Thank you for your invitation. Congressman Brooks respectfully declines because your request appears to be, on its face, a partisan effort to use a federal Congressional office to try to make the Democrat Party relevant again in Madison County, the Tennessee Valley, and the State of Alabama.

If, on the other hand, you wish to visit the Congressman's office to discuss public policy issues, Congressman Brooks will concur with that request, subject only to our ability to reach a mutually agreeable time. Our conference room can comfortably hold six to eight guests, plus Congressional staff.

As an aside, if you are aware of any occasions during the 30+ years that Democrat Congressmen Cramer and Flippo met with a Republican executive committee, please share that with us.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Noel
